Eastern National Releases “Benjamin Franklin: Printer, Inventor, Diplomat”

Fort Washington, PA – Eastern National announced the fourth installment to the National Park Famous American Series, Benjamin Franklin: Printer, Inventor, Diplomat is now available.

No one contributed more to the creation and definition of the United States than Benjamin Franklin. Using his wits, his pen and uncanny political savvy, he became a perennial presence as a printer, philosopher, inventor, statesman and founding father. Franklin gained world-wide fame with his electrical experiments. His fame and practical wisdom made him one of the leading founders of the United States. He became the first U.S. minister abroad and was instrumental in forging the first and oldest constitutional government in the world. This book was written by Franklin scholar, Larry Tise.

This book retails for $5.95 each (item# 2-48383) and can be purchased by mail at Eastern National, 470 Maryland Drive, Suite 2, Fort Washington, PA 19034; by phone at (877) NAT-PARK or (877) 628-7275; by fax at (215) 591-0903; or online at www.eParks.com (keyword: 2-48383).
