

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

August 7, 2003 (updated on 4/30/04)

Contact: Michelle Newhard

(215) 283-6900 x171

EASTERN NATIONAL LAUNCHES JAMESTOWN GLASSHOUSE WEBSITE

Fort Washington, PA – Eastern National announced today that the new Jamestown Glasshouse website is now available to the public. The website can be reached directly at www.JamestownGlasshouse.com or by a link on the www.eParks.com homepage. Select pieces of glass are also available in the Jamestown Glasshouse bookstore on www.eParks.com.

Website visitors can browse a large selection of reproduction pieces modeled after historical artifacts unearthed at Historic Jamestowne. Contemporary pieces modeled after common household items used during the Colonial period are also available. Each piece is hand-blown by a skilled glassblower at the Jamestown Glasshouse and is one of a kind.

Retail customers can make online purchases on eParks.com or download an order form directly from JamestownGlasshouse.com. Wholesale and custom glass requests will be reviewed on a case-by-case basis by the staff at Jamestown Glasshouse.

Park visitors can see live glassblowing demonstrations at the Jamestown Glasshouse, located in Jamestown, Virginia. It is part of Colonial National Historical Park, one of 387 units in the National Park System.

Eastern National is a non-profit organization that provides high quality educational products and services to America's national parks and other public trusts. Eastern National operates educational outlets in over 130 national parks and other public lands in 30 states. Since 1947, the organization has donated over $65 million to the National Park Service. For more information, visit www.easternnational.org and www.eParks.com.

###